

WEEKLY GAZETTE.

Although no official announcement has been received at the Department of State of the report that Great Britain has threatened to seize the Tortugas Islands, yet it is learned that the American Consul in Hayti has kept the Department fully informed as to the nature of the British claim and all proceedings taken by that Government against Hayti during the past three or four years. Now that the matter is reported to have assumed so serious a phase, the Government, with the view to being prepared for any emergency, is beginning to canvass its resources in case it should become necessary to again assert the intention of this country to maintain the Monroe doctrine to the extent of protecting these small island Republics against the encroachment of European powers. The result of the inquiries into the naval resources of the United States is not encouraging so far. Several wooden vessels forming a training squadron are now on their way northward from the West Indies. At present there is no vessel bearing the American flag in Haytian waters. The Yacht is at Key West and the Galena at Aspinwall, and it is possible that one or both of these vessels may be ordered to the vicinity of Hayti to represent the United States Government in the event that it may become necessary to enter a formal protest against European encroachments in the West Indies.

The political pot still boils and bubbles. At the Hoffman house, says a New York correspondent of the San Francisco Call under date of the 9th instant, praises of Cleveland or Hill are sung by Democratic braves. At the Fifth-Avenue Hotel everything is Blaine and Sherman. So far the dark horses have been kept conspicuously dark. A slight sensation was caused during the week by the attempt of the mugwump Post, in its Washington dispatches, to saddle Whitelaw Reid, the mighty man of the Tribune, with Sherman, accusing him of withdrawing all support from Blaine. Reporters from all the morning and evening papers flew to the top of the Tribune building only to meet with Reid's stern denial of the truth of the story. Politicians of both parties are thoroughly aroused as to the vastness of the Labor vote and what it may mean in 1888.

Yesterday was the latest Easter Sunday the world has seen in twenty-eight years, and there are not many now living that will live to see it so late again. It will be fifty-seven years before it occurs so late again. That will be in 1943, when it falls on April 25th, the latest it can possibly occur. Easter Sunday is a day of great significance to all Christians, who observe it throughout Christendom as the day upon which the Redeemer completed his mission upon earth by his resurrection from the dead.

It is highly probable that there will be an extra session of Congress in October, when business and railroad men will make an effort to either amend or kill the Inter-State Commerce Act. Things will probably run along for three months just as they are, and in the meantime the water routes will be scooping in the business.

A Bad Gang Broken Up.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 11.
Detectives have unearthed a gigantic conspiracy for robbing the Panhandle Railroad Company. Nearly half a million dollars worth of freight is said to have been carried off by the plunderers and their tools. The most of the men involved in the plot are conductors and brakemen in the employ of the road. This morning a concerted raid was begun upon the boarding places and houses of the Panhandle railway employees, conductors and brakemen, by a squad composed of 100 policemen, detectives and constables. At 1:15 o'clock two prisoners were escorted to jail from their homes and at 9 o'clock this morning 44 conductors and brakemen were locked up in the county jail, one entire wing of which having been specially set apart for their special accommodation. The early trains from the west were held in the yards by a display of red signals. At fourth avenue the officers boarded the train, knowing the men that were wanted, and promptly secured them and marched them to jail. No train arrived that did not lose one or more men from its crew. John H. Hampton, attorney for the Pennsylvania Co., was seen this morning in the office of the detective agency where he was sitting amidst a heterogeneous collection of plunder. He said "these robberies have been carried on systematically for several years. The company has long been aware that there was a leakage somewhere, and as early as September, 1886, they quietly commenced investigations. Detectives were placed on the trains where the goods could be watched and the thieves caught. We had already discovered that the culprits were employees of the company. In September there were 80 crews of freight trains on the Panhandle Co. coming into Pittsburgh. Of these 80 crews, no less than 75 were found to be crooked. A crew consists of a conductor, flagman and two brakemen. In some cases all the men were involved, in others only a part. The statement that the engineers and firemen were mixed up in the robbery is wrong, not a single one is involved. The goods were obtained in various ways; in many instances the seals were broken, while in others, hatchets were used to cut a hole in the end of the car, through which the men crawled and took what they coveted, and then they repried the car in bad condition, claiming that hole had been made by accident. The operations were all the result of a combination. Arrangements were carefully made, and each rascal was assigned to his particular part of the work in much the same way as a bank robbery is conducted by professional cracksmen. Things which alarmed us more than anything else, was that they stole large quantities of whisky and drank it in the cabooses. They needed vessels to hold the liquor, so they stole milk cans and kept it in them. Not daring to keep whisky openly in the cars, they tore up the flooring and hid it underneath. The men were continually reported drunk on duty, and the probability of disasters was something frightful to contemplate. All kinds of goods were stolen, including sewing machines, guns, revolvers, cutlery, silverware, cigars, clothing, liquors, groceries, furniture, and in fact every imaginable article that can be carried on cars were quietly removed. "Fences" were established in this city where stolen property was taken and then sold, the money being evenly divided among the crews. It is impossible to give the aggregate value of the property stolen, but it is claimed it will reach $300,000. The arrests created the greatest sensation among the railroad employees of this city. The scenes about the jail doors this morning where the relatives of the prisoners had gathered to learn the cause of the arrests, were of the saddest description. At one o'clock ten more arrests were reported. They were captured at the pay car while receiving their wages. This makes a total of fifty-six now in jail here, and it is supposed as many more have been apprehended at other points along the line. Consternation prevails among the proprietors of the "fences" and dens where the goods were secreted and sold. Seven more arrests have been made, but the names have not yet been received. Nearly 200 warrants are still out. A number of houses in various parts of the city were raided to-day, and a large quantity of goods recovered. Every man arrested had stolen goods somewhere. Among the prisoners are several desperate characters who were wanted by the police for other offenses. They were all armed, and when not taken by surprise, resisted arrest; numbers overpowered them, however, and all were lodged in jail.

Sunday Games Stopped.
LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., April 11.
About sixty deputy sheriffs, in three divisions, under the command of Sheriff John G. Mitchell, Under Sheriff Goldner and Captain Kavanaugh, visited the various parks used as baseball grounds in the villages of Massena, Middleville and Ridgewood, Queens county, yesterday afternoon and stopped the ball games in progress. At Atlantic Park, where the Cuban giants and Newark were playing before about 4,000 spectators, Captain Kavanaugh and his 15 deputies were surrounded by a crowd, and for a time it looked as if there would be trouble, as the players proceeded with the game despite the presence of the officers, and others picked up stones, threatened the officers' lives. Finally the mob was driven off and the playing ceased.

Unjustifiable Arrests.

BILLINGS, Mont., April 11.
Warrants have just been issued for the arrest of nine farmers of the Yellowstone Valley, between Billings and Park City. These arrests will be followed by many others. Their offense is cutting timber on the Crow Reservation. Nearly all the timber in this neighborhood is on the reservation, and during the late severe winter the farmers along the river were obliged to cross on the ice for their supply of fuel. Though closely watched, they were not interfered with, but a tally was kept, and now the Deputy U. S. Marshals and other officials will reap a rich harvest from the wholesale arrests. The point at which these farmers cut the timber is seventy-five miles from the agency around which the Indians are collected.

Undesirable Citizens.

DENVER, April 11.
A bloody riot occurred here last night between rival colonies of Poles and Hungarians, which resulted in the killing of one man, the serious wounding of many others and the arrest of 30 of the rioters. Nearly all of both parties were laborers about the smelters, of the very lowest type of their countrymen, and had been in this country but about a week.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

A Canadian View of the Fisheries Question.

TORONTO, April 11.
The Globe to-day says the letter of President Cleveland to the President of the Fisheries Union at Gloucester, Mass., is a remarkable and important document. It is not such a letter as the Americans interested in the fisheries desired to receive from the President, but the letter was evidently intended as a warning to Canadians also. While we desire that the rights of Canada shall be firmly and efficiently asserted and maintained, we hope the American fishermen will not be refused any privileges to which they are entitled, and they will never experience unjust or unfriendly treatment from those employed in the protection of our rights. It would be folly, however, to put out of sight the fact that many in the United States, including, apparently, the President himself and the members of his cabinet, assert that the fishermen of the United States have rights in our waters, which we believe they have not under the terms of the treaty now in force, and that there are privileges to which they are entitled by the opinion of the President, to which we say they have no title whatever. From this misunderstanding, if we assert what we believe, to be our rights, a greater misunderstanding may arise. This letter although studiously moderate in tone, intimates plainly what may follow. The position is to say the least, exceedingly serious.

Fears Personal Injury.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 11.
There is much excitement here over an official notice to the effect that during the presence of Lord Lansdowne in the Senate Chamber, at the opening of Parliament on the 14th inst., the galleries will be closed. This is the first time in the history of the Dominion that such a step has been taken, the galleries of the Senate always on such occasions being open to the public, who are admitted by ticket. The explanation is given that it will prevent confusion, but the opinion is that His Excellency has received letters containing threats, which he is afraid will be carried into effect if the crowd is permitted to enter the gallery of the Chamber.

THE MIKADO.

The Piece to be Presented Here by the Carleton Company Saturday Evening.
At last Reno is to have the genuine "Mikado"—Carleton's famous impersonation of the royal Jap. This great company will pass through here en route for Carson from Los Angeles to-morrow. After one night in Carson and three in Virginia, the company will be here on Saturday evening, April 16th. Including the orchestra it contains nearly if not quite 60 people. There are 42 singers, among them the eminent baritone, Mr. W. T. Carleton, Drew Greensfelder, Taylor Broderick, the Misses Rice, Vincent, Wisdom, Beaudet, Quigley and others with whom Reno people are already more or less familiar by repute, if not by observation. The costumes are without exception the finest ever worn upon the American stage. Every one of them was imported from Japan especially for Mr. Carleton. In all the large cities they are placed on exhibition in the principal dry goods store windows, and attract an immense amount of attention from both the ladies and the press. At the Baldwin Theater last year and at the Bush Street Theater this year in San Francisco Mr. Carleton's company appeared for five weeks in each engagement. During each his "Mikado" created a perfect furore, and the press was unanimous in declaring it to be really the only "Mikado" San Francisco had seen, notwithstanding the fact that several other companies had produced what they called the "Mikado." The company carries a car-load of baggage and scenery, and travels in a special car. It will arrive from Virginia City at 8 o'clock in the evening, and every member will be ready to step from the train right onto the stage. The scenery will be so arranged that it can be placed in position in a very few moments, and the curtain will be raised promptly at 8:30 o'clock. The GAZETTE is desirous that the visit of this splendid company shall be a success, because if it is it will go far towards insuring the visit of other strictly first-class companies, of which it must be admitted, but few stop here.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Al Clough Dragged Nearly a Mile by a Runaway Team.

A serious accident that may prove fatal happened at about half past 8 o'clock Saturday night near the old prison walls some two miles east of town. Al Clough, formerly of Reno, but now in the employ of Dr. Bishop at his ranch in Spanish Spring Valley, had been in Reno with the farm wagon and was on his way home in the vehicle. When near the walls mentioned the horses were frightened and became unmanageable. Clough was thrown out of the tongue of the wagon, and then he fell to the ground, his left leg being caught in the harness in such a way that he was dragged for nearly a mile. A couple of residents of that section stopped the horses and released the unfortunate man, when it was found he was badly hurt. He was at once conveyed to the Invaue Asylum, that being the nearest point at which a physician could be reached, and upon examination it was found that he had suffered what the doctors term a "compound dislocation" of the knee joint. The bones were literally torn asunder, and the bone of the upper portion of the leg or femur was forced through the flesh. It had come in contact with the ground, and the end of it looked more like a dry turnip than anything else. All possible medical aid was given Mr. Clough and he was made as comfortable as possible for the night.

Yesterday Mrs. Clough was sent for and arrived at the Asylum. She was told that Mrs. Bergman and Bishop had, upon consultation, concluded that amputation was the only thing that could possibly save her husband's life, and that the chances then were greatly against him. She at once consented to the operation, as did also Mr. Clough himself, who was perfectly conscious; so the limb was amputated just above the knee. Clough received severe external injuries that greatly complicate his case. His back was skinned almost the full length of his body, the injuries resembling burns. He also received a severe cut in the lower portion of the body near the rectum that very nearly penetrated to the bowels. He was literally bruised from head to foot, his face and hands suffering considerably. It looks as if the chances are greatly against him.

Marriage Bells.

On Easter Sunday, April 10, 1887, at 5 P. M., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Comstock, Reno, by Rev. Wm. Lucas, in the presence of a few invited friends of the bride, Colonel John Heathington, of Cumberland county, England, and late of San Jose, California, and Mrs. S. V. Clark, formerly of Reno and now of San Jose, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. The happy couple intend to remain a few days in Reno to settle up some business matters of the bride's interests, and after a short stay at San Jose intend to make the tour of Europe, and on returning to make the Pacific Coast their future home. Many beautiful and costly presents were presented, which the recipients duly appreciate. After the close of the ceremonies and a participation in the latter of such things as naturally follow a wedding, the guests, departing, congratulated the happy couple, and wished them a life of continued happiness, peace and prosperity.

Out of Luck.

For the third time in the past few years, the tailor and pawn shop of J. Russick was burglarized some time during the past night. The shutter of the show window was pried off, the plate glass cut with a diamond and quite a number of watches and pistols were taken. The thief used a hook which was attached to a strip of lath, with which he hooked out his plunder. It was a little too smooth a job for an amateur, and indicates the presence of professionals.

The Frankel Case.

The jury in the case of L. B. Frankel et al., charged with embezzlement, returned a verdict Saturday about noon of not guilty. The case was given to the jury on Friday, and they deliberated on it about 12 hours before agreeing. Next Thursday, April 14, the Court will again be in session, when will come up the question of trying the defendants on the remaining indictments. Until that time Sol. Frankel will remain in charge of the Sheriff.

Badly Mashed Up.

This morning — Sherman, the fisherman, was picked up on Douglas alley by an officer, in a sorry condition. His jaw was found to be broken and it was thought his hip was either broken or out of place. He gave no account of how he was injured, but must have received some heavy blows with a club. He was sent to the hospital.

Cattle Movements.

Five carloads of beef cattle, consigned to William Calligan, this town, arrived here last night from Lovelock.

George Humphrey will this evening ship one carload to Dutch Flat.

The recent discovery of gold ore in the Smith Bros' mines 14 miles south of town, and almost immediately west of Virginia City, is reported to be not only rich but extensive.

A Quick Fire.

Further particulars of the fire at Wells on Saturday morning are as follows: About 1 o'clock the O'Neill House was found to be on fire somewhere in the center of the building. The house was built of pitch pine, paper and cloth, and in a few moments was all ablaze. A few bed clothes, a trunk, and a bureau drawer were all the articles saved. Thirteen people are known to have been in the building, and all came out safe. O'Neill declares that he put a man named J. L. Alexander to bed at 12 o'clock in No. 17, which was right in the heart of the fire, and if he was, then he is there yet. Alexander was a miner from Sprucemont. There was no water handy, and the fire crossed a vacant lot and caught Fink's restaurant, consuming it in a few minutes. This is Mr. Fink's fifth fire. The brick building of Hamill & Honeyman stopped the further progress of the blaze.

A Fact Worth Knowing.

A physician in Genesee Co., N. Y., who has used Gilmore's Aromatic Wine in his practice, for several years, recently wrote the proprietors as follows:—"I do not think you give sufficient publicity to the value of your Aromatic Wine in all cases of dysentery, cholera morbus and summer complaints generally. I have for three seasons past used it in many severe cases of the above, and it has never failed to afford speedy and gratifying relief. No proprietary remedy has ever received such general endorsement from regular physicians of high standing as Gilmore's Aromatic Wine. For sale at Pinniger's drug store."

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boechie's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing consumption, severe coughs, croup, asthma, pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers in the United States and Canada.

Asthma and phthisis are instantly relieved by taking a few doses of Fryer's Abietene Cough Balsam. (It contains no opium.) Price, 75 cents. Sold by W. Pinniger, Reno, Nev. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

VISITING CARDS

AT THE

GAZETTE OFFICE

How She Converted Him.

Several weeks ago the proprietors of a machine foundry in this city, learned that their employees wanted to work under the eight-hour rule. The latter were told they might do as they pleased, provided they were willing to accept eight-hours' pay for eight hours' work. The proposition was agreed to, and the first day of trial all the men except seven or eight went home early. The next day the number that remained was a little larger, the third day still larger, and so on, until at the end of the week there wasn't a man in the establishment working less than the usual time.

One of the men who experimented with the eight-hour rule in the instance above referred to, tells how he came to change his opinion with regard to long and short time work. We give his story space, because it goes to show what an important factor of the labor problem home influence is. He says: "The second day we tried the eight-hour rule, I went home and found my wife sitting in the rocking-chair, leisurely reading the afternoon paper, and there was not a sign of preparation. Of course I began to expostulate with her about so unusual a state of affairs; but she made me feel very blank when she looked up and naively remarked that her day's work was over—that she was an 'eight-hour man.' The next day I was the last man to leave the shop, and on coming home I found the table spread and the meal awaiting me."

Pressing Home.

They were walking in the conservatory at the last White House reception.

"Will you love me with all your soul?" she murmured.

"Yes, darling," he answered.

"And all your heart?"

"Yes, dearest."

"And all your—"

"Everything, darling, everything," he interrupted.

"Pocket-book?" she continued, not noticing the interruption.

He gasped once and all was over.
